SPARK SUMMER CAMP CAMPER CODE OF CONDUCT

Each camper will be asked to agree to a code of conduct while at camp. Campers who are unable or unwilling to follow the camp code of conduct may be asked to leave camp to protect the experience and safety of all participants. By signing this document, you can confirm that you have gone through these important points with your child(ren) and have confirmed they will be able and willing to adhere to these requirements while at camp.

- The camper understands they will use language that honours God while at camp (i.e. no swearing, bullying, insults, etc.), and is respectful of all campers and leaders.
- The camper understands there is a zero-tolerance policy for violence or aggressive behaviour at camp. Violence or aggression will result in the camper being sent home from camp.
- The camper understands that to get the most out of camp, they must engage at camp! The best camper experience is for the camper to engage in all activities and have a good attitude toward participation.
- The camper understands that if they are feeling ill, they must tell a leader to receive the right help that they might need.
- The camper understands they must treat the property (whether at the church or on an excursion) with respect. God has provided us great facilities to be able to enjoy camp at, and they should be treated with respect.
